

Make a donation to help fund:

☞ Educational workshops on Irish music, art, dance, language, history, genealogy, etc.

☞ Local, regional and internationally known Irish musicians, dancers, professors, instructors and bards

☞ Interactive family activities and crafts that teach Irish culture to people of all ages

Choose the Hero You'd Like to Be...

YES! I would like to be a hero of the 8th annual Eugene Irish Cultural Festival...

Name:

Address:

Phone:

Email:

Donation Amount:

Questions? info@eugeneirishfest.org

Make your check payable to:

Eugene Irish Festival

Mail to:

Eugene Irish Festival

1430 Willamette St. #312

Eugene, OR 97401

List me as an anonymous donor

Thank You for Your Support!

Become a Hero

of the 9th annual Eugene Irish Cultural Festival

Concert:

8 pm, Friday, March 9th, 2012
Beall Hall, University of Oregon
Bua

Festival:

10:30 am – 6:30 pm, Saturday, March 10th, 2012
Sheldon High School: Workshops, Activities,
Performances, Vendors, Irish Food & Espresso Stand
Final Performance: , 5-6 pm, Sons of Malarkey

www.eugeneirishfest.org

mairead c. maguire

Donation: $1000 or more

Benefits:

- Banner displayed in a prominent location
- Verbal thanks at festival and evening concert
- Logo printed on posters, program & EICF web site
- Number of whole event comp tickets to be negotiated
- Two complimentary EICF coffee mugs and magnets
- Listed in program as a donor

Mairead Corrigan Maguire shared the 1976 Nobel Peace Prize for co-founding the Community of Peace People, a group that advocates a nonviolent resolution of the Northern Ireland conflict.

seamus heaney

Donation: $500 - $999

Benefits:

- Verbal thanks at the festival and evening concert
- Logo printed on posters, program & EICF web site
- Two complimentary tickets to the whole whole event including Friday night concert
- Two complimentary EICF coffee mugs and magnets

s. heaney (continued)

- Listed in program as a donor

Seamus Heaney won the 1995 Nobel Prize in Literature and is a prolific poet, writer and lecturer. He has been referred to as “the most important Irish poet since Yeats.”

lady gregory

Donation: $200 - $499

Benefits:

- Verbal thanks at the festival
- Two complimentary tickets to the whole event including Friday evening concert
- Two complimentary EICF coffee mugs and magnets
- Listed in program as a donor

Lady Gregory (1852-1932) was Anglo-Irish, an Irish nationalist and preserved Irish culture by learning the Irish language, collecting and documenting Irish folktales from the countryside. She also cofounded the Abbey Theatre and wrote many plays, poems and essays.

william r. hamilton

Donation: $75 - $199

Benefits:

- Two comp tickets to the daytime festival
- One complimentary EICF coffee mug and magnet
- Listed in Program as a donor

William Rowan Hamilton (1805-65) is an internationally famous mathematician, physicist and astronomer. His work was significant in the development of solar system and quantum mechanics. He is considered one of Ireland's most influential scientists.

clatherine hayes

Donation: $25 - $74

Benefits:

- Listed in Program as a donor
- $25-$49: One comp ticket to the daytime festival
- $50-$74: Two comp tickets to the daytime festival

Catherine Hayes (1818-61) achieved legendary status in her own lifetime as the first Irish born Opera Diva to achieve international recognition, praise and fame.

A donation form is available on the reverse side of this pamphlet.